

DEAN

ARTISTS
MANAGEMENT

ALLISON GRANT

DIRECTOR/CHOREOGRAPHER

Canadian theatre and opera director, choreographer and actor, Allison Grant has become increasingly in demand as a director and choreographer of opera in Canada and the United States.

Recent directing work includes Hawaii Opera Theatre's Die Zauberflöte, Le nozze di Figaro for Sarasota Opera, Die Fledermaus and Il Barbiere di Siviglia for Edmonton Opera, Falstaff at Opera Hamilton, as well as an acclaimed production of Roméo et Juliette for Vancouver Opera.

She has directed or choreographed many revival productions at the Canadian Opera Company, including Semele, which toured to The Brooklyn Academy of Music in March 2015.

In past seasons she has directed The Auction (world premiere: Westben Festival), Die Zauberflöte (Sarasota Opera), Don Giovanni and Carmen (Opera Ontario), Così fan tutte (Vancouver Opera), L'Italiana in Algeri (L'Opéra de Montréal), A Meeting of Minds (Canadian Stage, Toronto) and a workshop presentation of Corey Payette's music drama, Children of God at the Vancouver Arts Club ReACT Festival.

As a choreographer her work has been seen in Pirates of Penzance (Vancouver Opera) The Merry Widow for opera companies in Hawaii, Edmonton and Hamilton, Die Fledermaus, Ballo in maschera and Eugene Onegin (Vancouver Opera, Kentucky Opera), as well as The Queen of Spades, Dido and Aeneas, Don Giovanni and Eugene Onegin for The Canadian Opera Company. She has enjoyed choreographing or assisting on international productions with inspiring directors; Neil Armfield, Kelly Robinson, Ken Cazan, both Christopher and David Alden, Tim Albery and Joan Font.

As Artistic Director of Theatre Athena, Allison directed plays and musicals including Master Class, Private Lives and the Canadian premiere of Itamar Moses' brilliant play, Bach at Leipzig.

Upcoming in 2016; productions of The Hobbit with the Canadian Children's Opera Company, and Sondheim's Company with Music Theatre on the Thames.

March 2016