

GEOFFREY SIRETT

Baritone

Baritone Geoffrey Sirett continues to impress musicians and audiences in debut performances in opera, concert and recital repertoire. A native of Kingston, Ontario, Geoffrey has emerged as one of Canada's finest young baritones, highly sought-after across the country for a wide range of repertoire.

His charisma as an actor and a singer make him an ideal choice for the leading role in the world premiere of OVERCOAT, a musical version of the stage hit presented by Vancouver Opera, Canstage and Tapestry in the winter of 2018. He also looks forward to his debut on the Four Seasons Centre stage in the Canadian Opera Company productions of ARABELLA and the role of Captain Corcoran in Edmonton Opera's H.M.S PINAFORE. Sirett returned to Nova Scotia for a repeat of the hit production – THE BELLS OF BADDECK – during the summer of 2016, followed closely by a Banff workshop for the Toronto Symphony's presentation of Weill's SEVEN DEADLY SINS scheduled for June of 2017.
